PLANET HEART

Introducing Planet Heart - One Planet. One Race. One Heart. We Are All
One. ®

If one takes the letter, "h," from the end of the word "Earth" and moves it to the beginning, it forms the new word, "Heart."
This is Planet Earth, yet, we are also living on Planet Heart. Where our hearts beat as one - We Are One. We just have to remember. Some of us are and it is our job to spread this energy and do things that make a difference. Many of us, like We, The World, are working to make the world a better place for us and for our children. We are living in very auspicious times. People in spiritual communities and organizations, and the "New Age" Movement already know this, but we need to wake up the others who are still sleeping. The rate of awareness is increasing. So, this is the meaning behind the name, Planet Heart. As a Project of We, The World, we aim to extend their mission and believe that Planet Heart's mission is at the heart and core of that of We, The World.

Mission

The Mission of Planet Heart is to help cultivate a world of peace, helping to bring all humans together in harmony on a global scale and to realize that We Are All One. The Mission of the Planet Heart Project, originally called the Millennium Project, is to also document the first decades of the 21st Century, recording people's current thoughts through interviews, artistic expression, and community-building. (This format is part of its long-term goals and projects and will be outlined at a later time). Planet Heart, in partnership with We, the World is committed to furthering the mission of We, The World in promoting and producing multi-media of all facets such as events, concerts, documentaries, gatherings, internet programming, broadcasting, music and much, much more.

PLANET HEART, is envisioned to be a subdivision or project of We, The World, where We ARE the world. We stand together at the crossroads of a new tomorrow, realizing that if we open our hearts more and come together in community, a sense of unity is reawakened and renewed, bringing people together of all faiths and beliefs. It is here where we can reach, as the human species, together as one, our true full potential. We realize we aren't so different from our brothers and sisters, and that we all want to feel appreciated and loved for who we are, as unique human beings. With exciting programs such as collaborations with other individuals and related organizations promoting peace and higher consciousness, Planet Heart would like to envision a Domino-like effect where all of us slowly start to wake up, realize that We Are All One and EACH one of us CAN make a difference. Like We, The World, which has been promoting and producing spectacular work, especially with its ever growing 11 Days of Global Unity and its amazing Global Calendar of Events worldwide, Planet Heart intends to build a team, including its very own board of directors, and supporters.

Planet Heart is pleased to produce its first production with the First Annual World Peace Earth Day Celebrations April 22 and April 23rd, 2007.

Some Upcoming Projects for Planet Heart

ReAwakenend Poet and Friends: Special Evenings for World Peace. I would like to start doing events working with different poets and musicians to build a beautiful peace-themed evening of multi-media format. It would most often change each time. I would like to do this event bi-monthly, and if successful, maybe once a month. The first date I am working on producing for debuting Planet Heart and this particular event is slated for Earth Day, April 22, 2007, Sunday from 1-5PM. The cost will be $15/20 donation at the door. There may be a separate one-time event, which will feature dancer Three Arrows with my poetry/music. A CD-Release Party of my first Album will be part of one of these programs this summer.

UNITY: A World Peace Production. Time: TBA. This event will be themed similar to the first project, but it will bring in different artists with a focus around unity and world peace. It will actually be a show that is to be directed, and would include some theatrical performances and multi-media format. The show has not been written yet. I anticipate it will involve the audience throughout and be interactive at different points. One of my projections is for it to be at the Fringe Festival in August of this year or next August. I may also have it produced at another festival. It will include dance, art, spoken word, music and will be multi-media. This particular project is expected to grow to different formats and productions, and will be looking for talent and people interested in being part its creation. If you are interested, contact us.

First Annual Planet Heart/WeTheWorld Peace Event/Retreat/Festival/Gathering. (Name TBA) Date: Sept 14, 15, 16. Location: Camp Sunrise, Monroe, NY.

11 Days of Global Unity is from Sept 11-21, 2007 and this will be an event during 11 days that is an hour away on the lake for the weekend. It is still under pre-production, and is looking for artists, speakers, and collaborators, and volunteers. If interested in being part of this event, contact us at planetheart.org (site still under construction) but you can email us at andrewkaen_events@yahoo.com.

Annual Mayan Calender Countdown/White Dove Conferences with Tricia McCannon, Lygia Maciel and Others (TBA). 2008-2012.

Planet Heart Soul Singers. A spiritual collective of singers, musicians and artists, if interested in being part of this group please contact us at andrewkaen_events@yahoo.com.

Andrew Kaen, Executive Producer, Planet Heart
andrewkaen_events@yahoo.com

Dear NY Community,

This has been a long vision of mine to produce on earth day event and literally nine years to bring to reality and manifestation of Planet Heart. It was in my head for all of these years imagine. It was just about two years ago I was in the hospital for a major surgery, with a life-threatening large-sized benign tumor, acoustic neuroma, which made me deaf in my left ear and retaught me the value of life, its preciousness and the importance of having gratitude for what we do have. I am just one of many of us who experience all kinds of big circumstances which give us a chance to really look at our lives and the lives around us and go to the next level of being alive and understanding that phenomenon. That is, if we choose to see it in that light. We are living in tremendous times, we must really take time to really take in the NOW moment (I am still working on that myself), of our daily living – its not easy sometimes. There are so many energy shifts going on today, and we are all feeling it in different ways.

This is the official launch of Planet Heart, which produced this first event. I just want to thank you fro- the bottom of my heart for being part of the First Annual World Peace Earth Day Celebrations: Celebrating Our Planet, Healing Our Hearts. We could not do this event authentically without a special acknowledgement and recognition of those who came before us, Our Native Elders. They have always held the knowledge, tools, and expertise of our land and how to treat our land, and so so much more. Their information, lessons, and truths are so far more important to hear now more than ever. It is why, it is truly my Honor to have them in our presence for this two event program. It is so important for NY that I, with conversations, with my dear dear friend, Lygia Maciel, a Brazilian Elder who is one of the coordinators, and the main coordinator for the Elders, that we have added the second evening, to just give them the time to really speak to us. We couldn't do that in our April 22nd event, because we included such an array of different artists and speakers. We hope you come back for April 23, bring your friends, and especially your children and youth.

Please make sure to sign the mailing list on the cards you have been provided so you can be alerted of our future events. We are planning a first annual peace event in a rustic campsite one hour from the city on Sept 15-17. 2007 during 11 Days of Global Unity's fourth year, to which this event is a benefit for, along with WBAI and Planet Heart.

We hope you enjoy the festivities and please make sure to visit our major sponsors websites at www.wetheworld.org, www.goodnewsbroadcast.com, www.newrealitiesv.com, and soon www.planetheart.org (still under construction).

May Peace Prevail on Earth. We Are All One. AHO!

Blessings and Light,

11 Days of Global Unity

11 Days is an annual worldwide promotion of peace and sustainability launched in 2004. We, The World launched 11 Days of Global Unity Sept. 11-21 symbolically marking the global transformation of fear to hope. In 2006 11 Days took on even greater significance starting with the 100 year Anniversary of Gandhi's first nonviolent action on Sept. 11th and including 11 Days of Forgiving and other Gandhian practices of Satyagraha. 11 Days of Global Unity is designed to maximize public awareness about humanity's major challenges and encourage involvement in the solutions. In 2006, 11 Days of Global Unity was in 60 countries with more than 500 concerts, festivals, webcasts, and other events culminating on September 21 the U.N. International Day of Peace. See our list of allied organizations for info on Earthdance and our other 11 Days Major Partners.

Supporters of the 2004 launch included Nobel Peace Laureate Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Honorary Co-Chairs Jane Goodall, Deepak Chopra, Irene Khan (Secretary General of Amnesty International), Marianne Williamson, John McConnell (the original Founder of Earth Day), and others. Please come join us as we get ready for our 4th annual 11 Days of Global Unity this September and visit the website to get more information at www.wetheworld.org.

Planet Heart was launched April 22, 2007 to be officially recognized as a project of We, The World to promote world peace, reconciliation, community and the spirit of connectedness.

THE EARTH DAY CELEBRATIONS MCS PAUL SLADKUS AND ALAN STEINFELD

Paul Sladkus, Host, Founder and CEO

ABOUT GOOD NEWS BROADCAST - We are offering a new media concept for news and entertainment about people making a positive, constructive impact on society, no matter what the obstacles are. News desk and Media Contact: Paul Sladkus, 126 Fifth Avenue, Suite 3D, New York, NY 10011, Tel. (212) 647-1212; Fax.(212) 647-1216; Email. goodnews@goodnewsbroadcast.com

Imagine if each New York Times article attached a candid, unedited audio recording of the people interviewed for each story? Would the way you get your news seem a little different?

Good News Broadcast is the only news program, for now, where you will not only be able to read an article, you will be able to download, on demand, the actual video or audio interview behind the article. Almost every written story on Good News Broadcast attaches an original, unedited audio or video interview with the people behind the articles. So, rather than just reading our write up, our audience can go straight to our news sources and make their own decision about the content. We provide all the media resources to bring the audience into the action, to let them decide for themselves about the news.

This is just one example of how Good News Broadcast brings innovation to the news industry. Good News Broadcast (GNB) is a rapidly growing media lifestyle publications covering and distributing news and entertainment from domestic and international sources related to health, science, business, international relations, and multi-cultural and niche community interests. GNB publishes and syndicates content on-line, on-air, and in print under the Good News Broadcast Brand. It is one of the first news publications to combine the article with the audio interview and continuously to develop innovations in news media.

Approximately 80 percent of GNB articles and attached audio interviews are made available year round on demand, from the internet, at all times. GNB's current story archive contains over 2,700 audio, video and text stories and events, indexed by most major search engines. Most stories are indexed by major search engines within four weeks.

Serving a niche but extraordinarily influential community with excellent brand equity that ranges from international lawmakers and industry shakers, GNB is a powerful community of people and organizations who have contributed stories to the site. Currently, 100,000 unique visitors from this audience generate 1.2 million hits to the front page each week. The audience is made up of a highly-influential, professional persons concerned about making a positive impact on the World and future generations through media. They collaborate with Good News Broadcast, via their agencies and in person at Good News Broadcast events, to network with individuals who share their interest in leveraging the power of media to make a positive impact on society.

ALAN STEINFELD, writer, filmmaker, acupuncturist and host of the popular television program New Realities has been investigating metaphysics and spiritual consciousness for the past 25 years. His idea is to bring forth new ideas and new paradigms that harness new realities for the unfoldment of our evolving selves. www.newrealitiestv.com

New Realities has been the leading edge, new Consciousness cable program broadcast from New York for the last 12 years. The series is hosted and produced by Alan Steinfeld. Programs are seen every Monday night on Channel 57 at 9:00pm on Time/Warner television and on channel 109 on RCN cable in Manhattan and simulcast around the world on the Internet at www.mnn.org, then click on ch 57. (must use windows media player to view on the internet)

EARTH DAY QUESTIONNAIRE for Artists/Speakers/Performers

1. What does Earth Day mean to you, as an artist and for the world; what would you like to share with the community that comes to an event about you as an artist, and the planet. Feel free to share any prayers or other expressions as well.
2. Anything you would like to share about world peace and unity and "we are all one" and/or why you wanted to be a part of today's festivities, what it means to you to be in community.
3. One thing you would like to share about what you can do for the environment...
4. Any plug you would like to give for yourself, i.e. a new cd, or go to my website, or upcoming shows, or if you are speaking somewhere; etc.

Dr. Angel's Responses to Questionnaire

1. Earth Day means to myself as an artist, musician and a chiropractic physician an opportunity to express the inherent connection of all people everywhere through the expression of sacred ritual, dance and music to assist in uplifting the consciousness of all people to the oneness of life and love. I wish to express that Earth Day be a beacon of light, love and compassion which will shine light in every corner of the earth and we can all celebrate the day when finally the "Power of Love Overcomes The Love of Power."
2. I hoped to be a part of the Earth Day celebration to affirm the power we all have as conscious individuals to come together to create a true heaven on earth. I envision that there are new ways of interacting with our fellow brothers and sisters which will bring about a Golden Age in which all people everywhere will be considered as one human family and consequently with respect to the care we have for the earth, its animals, plants, and all its creatures, we will have become more of a caretaker than an exploiter of those resources.
3. We can purify the environment by expressing loving kindness to all beings and all people everywhere thereby healing ourselves and the planet.
4. Go to my Website: Drstevenangel.com for updates on upcoming workshops and lectures. My email is drangel777@yahoo.com.

Christine Marie Berkowitz, Founder Healer/Artist/Producer. As an Integrative Energy Healer, Christine Marie Berkowitz has been certified as a Holistic Health and Wellness Counselor (certification: Institute of Integrative Nutrition and the America Association of Drugless Practitioners), a certified Reiki Master Level IV (certification: The Children of Light Center of Personal Transformation), Light Ascension Master level 12, and a certified Esocen Level 1 Healer.

Christine has been studying psychotherapy based in bioenergetics with The Children of Light Center for Personal Transformation for more than three years, and has made an intensive, comprehensive study of the human condition for the past 20 years. She has personally overcome disease, imbalance and trauma in her personal life through the tools that are being taught in this interactive educational show. Christine Marie considers music, dance and comedy to be "healing arts," forms of communication that cross cultural boundaries.

Christine's television credits include a made-for-TV movie on Cinemax and four principal roles in commercials. She had a role in Howard Stern's film "Private Parts" which was produced by Paramount Pictures. She has performed regionally in bands and as a solo artist as a singer, dancer, and comedian. She was very successful producing her own line of O.V. Music and Comedy Variety Shows, two of which were at the well known Stand Up New York Comedy Club. Through her variety shows she gave others the opportunity to express their talents as she was responsible for the entire production, from casting to MC and performing.

With a burning desire to raise consciousness and inspire others toward wellness and healing, Christine Marie aspires as an independent artist with her record label Authentic Records. Her record label is a subsidiary of her company, Imov Inc., a multimedia production company that provides a forum to help rebuild the world through interactive experiential entertainment. This form of entertainment consists of conscious programming that create heightened awareness experiences that are a catalyst for healing, wellness and evolution. She has released three CDs that are being sold in Tower Records, digitally distributed over the peer-to-peer networks by Intent Media Works and through the internet on cdbaby.com, itunes and other digital sources.

She looks forward to incorporating her experience as a healer/performer to help lead others on a path that enhances their life and inspires them to take the steps toward a healthy life while fulfilling their ultimate potential and experiencing all the JOY life has to offer!

She is currently in production on her first full length CD of "conscious pop" music that is fun, uplifting, funky and layered with sound vibrational toning for entrainment and healing. She is also in the process of designing her first Wellness Through Entertainment Center set to be developed in the IMOV Tower in the Chelsea area of New York City.

"ONCE you are capable of accessing the conscious frequency of presence, all relationships, and particularly intimate relationships, will be healing and enlightening and true love relationships."

Christine's Answers to Questionnaire

1. Earth Day to me is a celebration of our unity as human beings. To honor the earth as our mother that nurtures us and gives us opportunity for life. A day to be grateful for the abundance that we are blessed to be living in here on earth. It is my intention to raise my own consciousness and to be inspiration for others to do the same.
2. It seems to me that we are one breath away from world peace. As we take the time to breath and watch we flow with the sonic vibrations of the all. And we are one. I was drawn to be supportive of this cause and I felt responsible and I knew it was going to be fun to be a part of this sacred and blessed event.
3. My contribution to the environment is that I have written a song called "Take It Back". And I will be licensing it to an organization that is replanting the trees all around the world. And going to have Sting sing and record the song, and I will be donating a portion of the money that comes in from publishing and licensing it to the organization. Plant Trees and Breath Easy...

I am currently working on my Conscious Pop Album with Chris Young (Neil YOUNG'S nephew).

My new band DAUGHTER is playing on April 24, 2007 At Lions Den,

4. I am also writing a proposal for LAKSHMI Foundation and looking for funding for the Interactive Educational Show. To benefit We The World. And Lakshmi. Any funding that comes to me through this show will be used in affiliation with Planet Heart!

Michael Braudy is an experienced violinist in Western, North Indian and Celtic music. A versatile improviser, he regularly collaborates with poets, storytellers, dancers, theatre and mime. Michael has played at the American Center in Calcutta and the Jaipur International Festival, and regularly performs in the US and abroad. He also gives workshops using music as a meditative tool. His recordings include Sumanas, Vridhhi, Awakening Peace, and Celtic Afternoon Concert, available at www.michaelbraudy.com

Michael's Answers to Questionnaire:

1. Our goal is the Unity of Humanity as an experience.
2. Music and sound is one powerful way to experience the interconnectedness we all have with everyone, and we can feel it in the room while the music is playing. This enhances the recollection that we are the same, beyond our thoughts and beliefs.
3. Share my music.
4. Go to my website: www.michaelbraudy.com and listen to my audio samples and purchase the CDs that you like.

Michele Broder is a singer/songwriter/comedianne who has been studying with the Native people since 1987. Through her many travels around the world, she has spent much time with the Mayan, Cherokee, Lakota, Cree, Algonquin and Chippewa nations. They have taught her that the earth is a living being which needs to be respected and nurtured. Her journey in life is to reconnect people's hearts to the earth mother through her improvisational chanting which is very influenced by the native singing.

Recently she performed at Caroline's, the world famous comedy club, as Dr. Bombinda Bombay, the Indian Dr. of comedy, spirituality and food. Through her humor, she takes audiences on a hilarious journey to find the "THE SECRET OF LIFE". To book her for a performance, contact her at: elvesring@hotmail.com.

Sally Campbell is a Quaker singer-songwriter from NYC, she finds her songs in the silence and brings them to life with her voice and autoharp.

Irma Star Spirit Woman, is a medicine woman, channel, and storyteller, who is a descendant of Mayan curanderos from Yucatán, Mexico, having studied with many indigenous medicine healers from Ecuador, Peru, Brazil, Greenland, Italy, and Dine, Cherokee, and Lakota Elders from the United States. Since 1998 she was part of the NY Shamanic Circle, and is the founder of the NY Shamanic Healing Circle. Mask making has a part of her medicine work, and has become a yearly event, and has open doors to at the Open Center by creating a mask ceremony for the Day of the Dead.

Irma also does private healing and cleansing sessions, private classes and workshops teaching the Toltec Knowledge consisting of Smoking Mirror, Earth's Boost of Energy, A Warrior - Stalking Awareness, Womb work activating the Feminine Energy, Astral Planetary Evolution, Voice and Heart Healing, Shamanic Trance Dance. Teacher creating sacred objects such as palo sticks, medicine shields, medicine bundles, dream catchers, and using a combination of herbal plants, essential oils, crystals, stones in honoring with tradition indigenous ceremonies and rituals, in the area of New York City. Her contact information: starspiritwoman@yahoo.com or (718) 396-4246.

Irma says about Earth Day: Earth day is the day to celebrate the Universal Mother Earth, as we honor her everyday, we take a special day to recognize and nurture and come together as one mind and one heart to appreciate her and honor her with our unconditional love. It is time of the Pachacuti a sacred prophecy meaning the time of "Great Change" it's the time of all the people from all the 4 directions of the Earth, come together, and teach each other the way of their ancestors, and the healing of the Earth. Pacha means "Earth" or "Time" and cuti means "to set things right". The transformation of the Earth, and here we are finding us as a family and the special day "Earth Day" following the tradition of the Elders as we continue to support and love her.

Circle of Soul is a collective of Singers, Artists, Interfaith Ministers and Yoginis who come together in song, movement and creativity to honor the earth. They meet in circle to celebrate seasonal changes and cultural holidays from around the world.

Circle of Soul facilitates workshops and rituals for all types of communities, events and life passages. The celebrations and ceremonies that they produce are participatory in nature and they strive to create safe and sacred space so that all in attendance can feel free to join. Circle of Soul was formed in 1998 by Carrie Wykoff as a final project for a class on Women's Spirituality at the NY Open Center. For more information about Circle of Soul please visit www.circleofsoul.org.

Circle of Soul's Answers to Questionnaire:

1. "The Earth is Our Mother, We must Take care of Her"
We like to think that every day is actually Earth Day.

Kathy Davis currently serves as Public Affairs Director of WBAI and as a staff representative of the WBAI Local Station Board. She is co-host of Health Action heard on Mondays at 1 PM and host/producer of Heart Of Mind, the program on consciousness and spirituality, heard on Thursday evenings at 10 PM. In addition to being a journalist Kathy is certified by the Oregon College of Oriental Medicine as a Qigong healer and instructor. She also is a practitioner of Reike and the Sandlin Technique a form of healing derivative of the Cherokee healing systems. Kathy Davis is on a spiritual journey that calls for involvement in social transformation and the realization of personal divinity.

Kathryn's Answers to Earth Day Questionnaire

1. For me Earth Day is the celebration of Mother, Mother Goddess and Universal Spirit. Our current state as a species on the brink of extinction is a message of warning to all who can hear that it's time to return home. Our Home, Mother Gia Earth, is waiting for her children to remember who they are and re-engage in the co-creation of a new age of consciousness, harmony and peace.

2. The greatest challenge is to find peace within one's own life while at the same time remaining active in the world. With so much chaos the temptation is to go forth with anger and fear or to sheild oneself in an insular environment that is disconnected from our responsibility to transform our social and political structures. In order to proceed we must take good care of ourselves and use our spiritual tools to ameliorate our sorrow and grief over the suffering that we witness and to on a spiritual level forgive those who cause harm in the world.

As we go forth we must go forth as warriors. Challenging within ourselves the temptation to internalize the controllers tactics of personal attack and focus on a systematic response that challenges the individual behaviors and social structures that cause harm in the world. Events such as this are critical to our success because it gives us community and confirmation that we are on the right path. It allows us to network and create a movement for self awareness and social and political transformation. Your involvement and support of the organizations that have created this event is a good first step in making our goals possible.

3. For the environment we must do everything we can do. Refrain from littering the streets. Reduce energy consumption with low energy bulbs; moderate heat and cooling systems; take public transportation; recycle; buy and invest in green products. You can plant trees and help to protect green spaces and become involved in campaigns to pass environmentally sound legislation. For guidance some additional organizations you can check are earthday.org or the Union of Concerned Scientists at ucsusa.org or contact the Wetlands Activism Collective at wetlands-preserve.org.

4. WBAI Radio and the Pacifica network is an important resource for communication and change. But WBAI is a political entity and it requires your direct involvement. The focus of programming and policy is largely determined by the will of its constituency. Please consider becoming a member of WBAI 99.5 FM. As such you will have the privilege of running for a place on the WBAI local station board and or voting for those who do run. As a listener member you will be activated as a source for change within your individual communities. You will be informed and inspired!

Membership is only $25. For information call (212) 209-2800 or go to wbai.org. You can listen to my programs Heart of Mind on Thursday evenings at 10 PM and Health Action on Monday afternoons at 1 PM

"Divine Whispers of the Heart"

Divine whispers of the heart
Call out to all spheres
Designs of the global conditions
Time at last to take a new step
Into the pathway of harmony
Trust the process
To raise the love vibration
To a grander spectacle
Divine whispers of the heart
Follows the golden seed
To be planted and blessed
Time at last to set in motion
A momentary shout
For all to hear and sense
That it is time
For humans to wake
To a new dawn cometh
Divine whispers of the heart
Seeping love syrup to taste
Hear the calling

RAY KORONA's BIO - Ray Korona writes and performs political, environmental and labor folk and folk rock plus love songs, too, touring nationally both solo and with the Ray Korona Band. Despite Ray's outspoken lyrics, his music has found its way onto NPR, Pacifica & hundreds of college & community radio stations. Ray has co-written, recorded and performed music with Pete Seeger, shared the stage with speakers such as Amy Goodman, Noam Chomsky, Greg Palast... and singers such as Tom Paxton, Patti Smith, Richie Havens. Ray's songs have been published in many languages by the UN's International Labor Office, quoted in a cover story in New York Magazine, won the Mobilization for Survival's peace song contest and performed at major international gatherings. As one reviewer wrote, "Ray and his band sing for social and environmental justice with insight, satire and a catchy beat!" Visit Ray at www.raykorona.com.

RAY KORONA Answers to Questionnaire:

1. Our mc, Paul Sladkus, reserves a special place on the Goodnews web site to focus on issues of such basic importance that he calls it "Pause the World." I think of Earth Day as a time when we encourage as many people as possible wherever they may be to pause for just a little while and think about the well being of our planet and the precious life it holds.
2. Many of the participants in this gathering work in diverse ways throughout the year for peace and environmental justice. Our coming together to share what we do, what we know and the energy we bring to this work provides a wonderful space for both celebration and renewal.
3. Let's work to create a caring environmental consciousness that makes having respect and love for our planet a fundamental principle shared by every one of its inhabitants.
4. Let's work to create a caring environmental consciousness that makes having respect and love for our planet a fundamental principle shared by every one of its inhabitants.

With feet rooted in gospel, a heart filled with soul, and a voice touched with jazz, Chanda creates soul-stirring lyrics and melodies that inspire and uplift the spirit. Chanda has been weaving stories through song, humming melodies, and bending words since her childhood. Her voice is described as "blessed," and her song as a "journey into the universal heart." Her performances blend jazz standards with spirituals, spoken word, and soulful original rhythm & blues. Chanda appeared in several Off-Broadway productions, shared the stage with Mino Cinelu, Papo Vasquez and John Benitez, opened for Regina Belle & The Whispers, India.Arie, Angela Bofill, Amel Larrieux, and has performed as a featured vocalist in the US and abroad at venues such as Birdland, Le-Club in Moscow, Hard Rock Café, WBAI, and the Jazz Standard. She has written music for several dance companies and post-modern dance videos, co-created two world fusion music projects, and toured Germany, Switzerland, and Italy singing and leading workshops on the African roots of Gospel music with the Golden Gospel Singers. Her debut recording, Like|Water, was released in 2005, and her sophomore album, m Across Jordan, will be released Summer of 2007.

Chanda's Earth Day comments:

It's all about music, the universal language of man and the shorthand of emotion. That powerful force that carries us through war and triumph, heartache and success while building bridges and preserving history. Music uplifts the people. By uplifting the people, we uplift the community. By uplifting the community we uplift nations. By uplifting nations, we uplift the world. An uplifted world honors its home, it's mother—Earth.

He helped to organize community support for smart growth development on Long Island, oversaw community outreach and helped to craft regulations for the redevelopment of the Greenpoint-Williamsburg waterfront, Park Slope, and Red Hook. He assisted with bringing electronics recycling to the Borough Hall greenmarket, bring affordable housing to Bushwick, and worked tirelessly behind the scenes to reduce the Combined Sewage Overflow impacts and green the landmark Atlantic Yards project. He continues to work as an activist supporting a more sustainable New York City, and is helping to launch a new grassroots non-profit organization devoted to that cause.

Jodi Serota is a life-changing metaphysical educator, channel, vibrational healer and professional artist. Her in-depth intuitive abilities and her remarkable sound healing powers are used to create initiations and activations which instantly make major shifts in consciousness and healing. She holds individual sessions, teaches classes and creates multi-media concerts and events for personal growth, transformation and the creative process. She is a co-author of the book Healing The Heart of The World from Elite Books, and she is also the owner and creator of the new META Center New York. Jodi Serota is a contemporary artist and vibrational healer born and raised in the New York City area. She is a graduate of Syracuse University where she earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Painting. She also completed specialized studies at both the St. Martin's School of Fine Arts in London, England, and The Fashion Institute of Technology in New York. Additionally, since 1981, she has been one of the New York area's leading metaphysical educators offering both individual sessions and large group workshops for personal growth and vibrational healing.

Ms. Serota's art career has evolved from her fine arts background, through the world of high-fashion textile design to her current role as a pioneer in a new field in which vibrational healing utilizes art, color, energy, channeled information and sound. Serota's paintings usually feature acrylics on canvas or watercolors and/or mixed media on paper. Serota is often commissioned to create works of varying sizes for private collections, and while her work has been promoted and distributed primarily throughout the Northeastern United States, recent works have been commissioned for clients as far west as California and as far east as Africa. Serota began her textile career in the women's wear field, specializing as a designer, colorist and printer. In the early 80's, her textile work was focused in the medium of hand-painted silk. She has taught classes on the French techniques of painting on silk as both a private instructor, and at The Parsons School of Design in New York City.

Serota has exhibited her paintings in galleries throughout the U.S., has sold to numerous works for private residences nationwide and regularly displays commissioned collections of her work in public environments such as business, medical and other public spaces. Serota maintains an art studio in Manhattan where one can view and/or acquire her original works by appointment. In addition to her work as a professional artist, Serota has been studying and teaching for over 25 years in the fields of consciousness and metaphysical awareness. She is a metaphysical educator, speaker, channel and vibrational healer with certifications as a 4th Degree Reiki Master, a DMA (Technologies for Creating) instructor, a trained Cranial Sacral Therapist, an Axiatonal Light Grid Healer, a certified practitioner in Electro-Magnetic Restoration, a Divine Intervention practitioner, an Ordained Healer in the order of the Melchizedeks, a charter member of Art in Medical Spaces and a Member of the International Sound Healers Association.

She is also the founder and owner of META Center New York- (Multidimensional Education and Transformational Arts Center), which is a sophisticated conference center and individual practitioner's facility dedicated to consciousness-raising, healing, personal growth, transformation & creativity. Jodi recently co-authored the book "Healing the Heart of the World: Harnessing the Power of Intention to Change Your Life and Your Planet", published by Elite books.

In September 1989, Serota began as an instructor at the former Manhattan Center for Living in New York City, a non-medical facility for the care of those with life-threatening illnesses, where she taught a variety of metaphysical classes including an Art, Color and Sound Healing Workshop. The Center was also the home of an impressive display of Serota's "healing" artwork. She continues to lecture and hold experiential workshops, vibrational healing concerts, and creates special events at inspiring locations such as The Cathedral of St. John The Divine.

Serota has also been a frequent guest on Manhattan Cable Television, appeared on network radio and has been a featured speaker at numerous complementary health "expos." She has also been interviewed frequently for book projects and for domestic and foreign magazine articles. She created successful one-woman shows of healing art at New York's Whole Life Expo, New Millennium Expo and New Life Expo, all of which are among the largest showplaces of holistic practices in the U.S.

Another recent achievement of note in Serota's career was her recent introduction of her line of "Tools for Consciousness" which include original vibrational sound healing CD's and one-of-a-kind channeled paintings designed to allow the recipient to experience color as a healing tool. Serota also was named as a recipient of the New York "Do-ers" Award, sponsored by Dewar's, honoring her as one of the individuals who have provided inspiration and leadership in the greater New York area.

In addition to Serota's lengthy list of accomplishments are her accreditations as a practitioner whereby she works on patients with cancer and other life-threatening diseases. She is also the primary promoter of New York area appearances of Max the Ancient Crystal Skull, an ancient artifact passed down by Mayan and Tibetan cultures for use in healing and consciousness activation. She creates sacred ceremonies and activations with Max and is also the keeper of the unique Green Jadeite Crystal Skull which Serota utilizes as a tool for activating healings of the heart. Carmela Tal shares:

Q: Who coined April 22 to be the first Earth day in 1970?

A: Jose Arguelles, Founder of the Whole Earth Festival (1970); has been a great inspiration for me since I looked into his Mandala Book (Shambala) in 1973 – where I found the date Aug 16-17 1987 for Harmonic Convergence, predicted to be a window in time for people to link in harmony and leap into a brighter sense of awareness. And so it was when 144,000 sun dancers, created a grid of light around the planet, preparing to greet a cosmic civilization.

Jose Arguelles, artist and art historian inspired many to create new ceremonies.

RoseMary Wereley, is a massage therapist from Vermont, who sings traditional songs, and helps to represent the Eastern Woodlands people. She will open the program with the Mi'kmaq - Call To Relations, which is song inviting the Ancestors and the People to gather together. She will also sing a Mother Earth Chant, which is thought appropriate for Earth Day; and a song to honor the Buffalo -- the giver of Spiritual Strength, and she will close the day with a Traditional Traveling Song, to release the Spirits and send them and everyone home safely.

The Songs she sings are primarily Eastern Woodland/Algonquin songs -- Mi'kmaq; Abenaki; Anishinabe; and Mohawk learned from various Elders, Teachers and Spirit. She has lived in Vermont for the last 20 years (originally from NY) and has been learning, singing and teaching songs for almost 10 years now to Honor and Heal the Ancestors and help with Healing of our Mother and All Our Relations.

Diane's Answers to Questionnaire

1. Earth Day is a reminder that we are all living on planet earth and that we must have reverence, respect and infinite gratitude for the ground that we walk on, the earth that we breathe, the water that sustains our life.
2. I would like to share the phrase "May Peace Prevail on Earth" as simple phrase but one that has been said in some way languages in some many countries creating a resonance field. I wished to be part of the festivities because I believe in community and supporting our community members and friends in making their visions happen. I wished to support and honor my dear friend Andrew Kaen who has been inspired to create synergy between us for the greater good. Thank you Andy! Much love and gratitude to you!
3. I am inspired to bring people to places devastated by environmental destruction to bear witness to what happens when we become disconnected to nature. My organization The Source of Synergy Foundation will be doing this in the near future.
4. Plug: www.coalitionforonevoice.org , and coming soon..... www.thesourceofsynergy.org Thanks Andy! Love & Gratitude, Diane

PROCESSION MARCHING BAND BIO

Percussionist Kenny Wolleson performed on over 30 recordings during the 1990s and, as the decade progressed, gained increasing renown as a musician of astonishing versatility, skill, and ingenuity. He has recorded and toured with all kinds of musicians, from Tom Waits (Wolleson performs on Waits' 1993 collaboration with William S. Burroughs, Black Rider), to Sean Lennon, to Ron Sexsmith (Wolleson performs on his second album, Other Songs). He has performed regularly with Bill Frisell as a member of his trios, the New Quartet and his septet with which he appeared on the album Blues Dream.

He has played with John Zorn, Marc Ribot, John Medeski, John Scofield, Jesse Harris and the Ferdinandos, Mitchell Froom, Big John Patton, John Lurie, Jim Hall, Jessica Williams and Myra Melford, and tours occasionally with Zorn's

Electric Masada. A founding member of the New Klezmer Trio, Wolleson is also all over N.Y.C.'s downtown jazz and avant-garde musicians' recordings, and has been so active as to tour with Bill Frisell and Myra Melford in the same month. For the past couple of years Wolleson has been leading the emergence of his extraordinary marching band/ sonic consciousness raising extravaganza presently becoming renowned as "The Himalayas".

Kim Iacono, in previous years well known as a celebrated Fine Art photographer, transitioned through recent years to work for inner city renewal and green development, with particular emphasis on work with youth, via five years of work dedicated to the revitalization of Brook Park, a community garden in Mott Haven, South Bronx where she was instrumental in the original design of and negotiations for the Harmony Grove redevelopment project which will turn a presently asphalt covered stretch of the Brook Park grounds to a verdant oasis dedicated to individual and world peace. For info on this project see: http://www.livingmemorialsproject.net/registry_results.asp?myID=1092002110315AM 2008.

This year Iacono is founding "The MAH Project" an organization which will present the youth programs she developed as well as conduct public consciousness raising dialogues/actions dedicated to inspiring each individuals power of present decision and motivation to bring forth maximal illumination and the true gifts of the their spirit to Life. Programs for youth include "FoodWise", a healthy cooking and total wellness series and "MAHworks", a performance/ceremony/celebration which presents the fruits of 3 workshops: MusicWorks, making handmade instruments out of recyclable garbage and playing them with professional musicians, a song and movement class "Songs of the Forest" and a flag making class where students picture and declare the world they intend to create. The "Himalayas" marching band is a primary collaborator in both MAHworks and the public joy activating excursions.

Dear EarthTalk : The term “sustainable” seems to be the new green buzzword. What exactly does it mean, particularly when applied to such things, say, as transportation or agriculture? -- Steve Nezhad, Portland, ME “Sustainable,” quite simply, is the positive result of conducting economic, social or environmental activities in such a way that current needs are met without compromising the well-being of future generations. A sustainable activity also does not despoil the here and now, in part because of how it may affect the future.

For example, cars that run on oil and gasoline are unsustainable on both counts: They make use of a non-renewable resource (that is, one that will be completely depleted at some point in the future); and they pollute the environment right now. Thus they negatively impact the present-day as well as tomorrow.

What, then, is sustainable transportation? Any option that moves people or goods while impacting the environment minimally. Walking and bicycling are the most sustainable, using no energy except for leg power and consuming very little or no resources. And public transportation moves large numbers of people at once while also saving space, as one negative impact of cars is that activities tend to spread out through the process of sprawl, creating the need to travel greater distances to obtain goods or get to work.

As such, to a large extent transportation can be made more sustainable through urban design. The closer together we locate shopping and entertainment centers, the easier it is for public transport to get us there, and the less reliant we are on cars. And cars themselves can be more sustainable by running on clean fuels or on technologies, like hybrids, that use less fuel. Better yet, cars of the not-too-distant future will be powered by fuel cells, which run on hydrogen and spew no pollution. Ideally, that hydrogen will be made from water, using power from solar energy, thus creating no pollution at that point in the process, either.

In the realm of farming, sustainable agriculture in its ideal form provides a living for those who farm and supports the local community's needs while maintaining the natural ecology of the farm and its surrounding environment. According to the National Safety Center (NSC), a “sustainable” farm produces crops without damage to the farm's ecosystem, including the soil, water supplies and other adjoining resources. Sustainable agriculture is also “intergenerational,” says NSC, in that it seeks to pass on to future generations a conserved natural resource instead of one that has been depleted or polluted.

Some examples of sustainable agriculture include avoiding chemicals, rotating crops, and choosing crops that suit the climate, so as to reduce the need for chemicals and preserve the long-term fertility of the soil. In light of modern developments, some might add that avoiding genetically modified crops would also fit with the sustainable model, given the uncertainty of their impact on ecosystems and personal health.

Robert Gilman of the Context Institute defines sustainability as “extending the Golden Rule through time...Do unto future generations as you would have them do unto you.” Meanwhile, Paul Hawken of the Natural Capital Institute offers an equally concise summary: “Leave the world better than you found it, take no more than you need, try not to harm life or the environment, make amends if you do.”

A Message from James Twyman, Peace Troubador, The Beloved Community

Beloved Friends,

The Season For Non-Violence Concert tour has ended but the work of transformation continues. There are a few things I've noticed after performing for 64 straight days all over the US:

1. The world needs each one of us to step forward as dedicated spiritual peacemakers.
2. People everywhere want to be part of a new solution.
3. The time is NOW!

My goal is to offer opportunities to assist in this global transformation, and I know you'll find your own unique path of service. If you've been sensing this call and feel you are being guided to serve as a Minister of Peace, I would like to invite you to join our next "Seminary of Spiritual Peacemaking" class. Over 500 people from around the world have trained directly with me to amplify their gifts, creating peace everywhere they go. If you would like more information on the program simply go to www.emissaryoflight.com and click the "Seminary" button. We would love to welcome you and watch you soar to new heights.

Jerusalem Hug:

Would you like to be part of one of the most profound peace experiments ever envisioned? If so, I hope you'll consider joining me in Israel for the "Jerusalem Hug." Imagine over 5000 people wrapping their arms around the Old City of Jerusalem and sending their energy to heal this holy land. You'll also join me and others on a life changing journey through the holy sites of Israel, touching and feeling the energy of the great prophets and saints. There are only a few places left and you'll have to respond immediately since the trip begins May 17. For more information visit: www.206tours.com/beloved/

Most of you know that I've worked with Doreen Virtue for many years and honor the wonderful gifts she has shared with so many people. She has a very special program attached to her latest book that I wanted to let you know about. I hope you'll read this information and join us.

Blessings,

James

A Little Bit About Paneurythmy – from Raphael

Each feeling gives birth to energy. A feeling that is shared multiplies the energy tenfold. A collective feeling creates a mighty energy, but the individual feeling must be strained and the mutual collective feeling must be harmonized. Therein lies the entire reason for the weak effect of contemporary feelings; almost no state of intensified feeling is observed today. Yet, what a great reality would be reflected in the exaltation of a myriad of harmonized sentiments. The ancients called feeling the forge of power. Verily, how majestic is the feeling of mutual love. No less is the power of mutual gratitude. Invincible is the feeling of self-sacrificing heroism. Thus beautiful towers and citadels can be constructed. But from where will harmonization come? Not from the reason or the circumvolutions of the brain, but from the heart, from Light. Only the feeling of wrath will we leave to the dark ones. Among the murky red sparks there will be no harmony. Heart, p. 278 (agni yoga books)

Sometimes let your heart converse with the Higher World. This conversation can be held in many tongues. Perhaps the heart will gather in its memory hours from many lives. Perhaps the conversation will be a silent one, without precepts and advice, only ascending and strengthening in ascension; there may be the silence of gratitude or the silence of the power of readiness. The flame of the heart is kindled in striving toward unification with the Higher World. Only the heart will find the way to Hierarchy. The heart will strengthen itself by the power of the Highest. Only the heart will be a stronghold in battle. Heart, p. 41

People do not want to imagine how many dangers take place around them. How many times the Highest Forces and participants in the Subtle World have saved them! But mankind assumes that if the day has passed nothing has threatened. Such a trend of thought deadens the embryo of the sense of gratitude, yet without this feeling humanity cannot succeed. Instead of gratitude a demand appears and then a threat. But one cannot cross by a threat, just as one cannot do so on nettles. Pitiful are the threats against the Highest Powers! There is nothing more disintegrating than threats. The heart withers from the dust of threats. Heart, p. 524

"you never change things by fighting the existing reality. to change something, build a new model that makes the existing model obsolete." r. buckminster fuller

THANKS YOU'S AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A special thank you to Lygia Maciel, who without her and her incredible beautiful energy and connections, we would not have had our Native Elders in the program, thank you so much Lygia for contacting them, we couldn't have had an authentic program without them and your support.

Thank you to Alan Steinfeld and Paul Sladkus for being our MCs and co-sponsoring these events and of course Rick Ulfik, with We, the World, for without him this whole event would not have happened. Thank you also to the board of directors of We, the World for giving me the opportunity to make Planet Heart a reality, providing me fiscal sponsorship. And to Kathy Davis, to a warm thank you to WBAI for sponsoring us on the radio. Thank you to Visual Word for giving us a great rate for the projection screen. Thank you to Mara from the NYC Parks Department for permission to use Washington Square Park for this event. A special thank you to Elana Stanger for getting our park permit – we wouldn't have it without her immediate response. Thank you to all the performers and speakers and MCs and volunteers who have graciously offered their time, commitment, and spirit for making this production happen. Also thank you to the audience who have chosen to be here with us to show our planet some respect and love and heal our hearts at the same time. DiversityArts.com, for the logo design. Thank you to Rev. Lyn for grounding me before the production. Thank you to Officer Alberici of the 6th Precinct and Detective Hernandez (Community Affairs) for providing us with parking permits and coverage. Thank you to Erez and the Kraine Theatre for giving us the space for this special event. Thank you to everybody for being part of this production. From the bottom of my heart, I want to thank all of you for we are all one, and I hope that will be the motto for our lives to live by. I especially want to thank Sandra Winter, Lisa Roma, Lygia Maciel, and Ebony Three Arrows for all of your hard work and efforts. I also want to thank Michele Broder, Elana Stanger, Kim Iacona, Ray Korona, Mirtille, Rick Ulfik, Kathy Davis and all of the volunteers that have come aboard to make this production a reality. A really special thank you to Lisa Roma for joining the team to put this production together, having just come on board just about ten days ago, she has done amazing work daily putting many hours into many chores to help the production run smoothly, including this very program at the last minute. A thank you also to Nikki for being our stage manager, bringing music and art energy in the year of my 20th high school reunion, "music and art forever" we would say. Thanks Nikki!! Also, thanks to Summer for coming late on to the production team, and for coming all the way from San Francisco at mint time to join us for this day. Thank you to all of our Native Elders for joining us, and giving the NYC community much needed messages and prayers to share with us at this time. We hope to have more programs like this in the future, for this is the first annual. May Peace Prevail on Earth! We Are All One. Aho!

I am sure I am forgetting to thank someone not mentioned, but if I am, please know I thank everyone who has been involved. A special thank you also to Kraine Theatre and Justin for doing our sound and lights!

Peace Campaign"

A SAVAGE SOCIETY LIVES

IN A STATE OF WAR" I

"Beware the leader who bangs the drums of war in order to whip the citizenry into a patriotic fervor, for patriotism is indeed a double-edged sword. It both emboldens the blood, just as it narrows the mind.

And when the drums of war have reached a fever pitch and the blood boils with hate and the mind has closed, the Leader will have no need in seizing the rights of the citizenry. Rather, the citizenry, infused with fear and blinded by patriotism, will offer up all of their rights unto the Leader and gladly so. How do I know?

For this is what I have done... And I am Caesar

But

A CIVILIZED SOCIETY LIVES IN A STATE OF PEACE"!

Preamble, We the Peoples of the United Nations Determined

"To save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our life time has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and to establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom". Charter of the United Nations, October 24, 1945, Universal Human Rights Coalition, P.O. Box 91, Camden, New York 13316, (315) 675-8498.

PERSONAL PLEDGE OF NONVIOLENCE

"Making peace must start within ourselves."

I, _____ on this April 20 & 22 days of, 2007 commit myself to become a nonviolent and peaceable person.

To Respect Myself and others:

To affirm others and to avoid uncaring criticism, hateful words, Physical attacks and self-destructive behavior.

To Communicate Better:

To share my feelings honestly, to look for safe ways to express my anger and work at solving problems peacefully.

To Listen:

To listen carefully to others, especially those who disagree with me and to consider others' feelings and needs, rather than insist on having my own way.

To Forgive:

To apologize and make amends when I have hurt another, to forgive others and to keep from holding grudges.

To Respect Nature:

To treat the environment and all living things, including my pets, with respect and care.

To Play Creatively:

To select activities and games that support values, which avoid activities, which make violence, look exciting, funny or acceptable.

To Be Courageous:

To challenge violence in all its' forms whenever I encounter it; whether at home, at school or in the community: I will stand with others that are unfairly treated.

This is my personal pledge. These are my goals. I will check myself on what I have pledged at least once a month on the April 20-22 days of the month.

"Eliminating violence, one person at a time, starting with myself."

Global Declaration of Interdependence

Preamble:

In acknowledgment of the many existing documents and efforts that promote peace, sustainability, global interconnectedness, reverence for life and unity, We, The World hereby offers the following Declaration of Interdependence as our guiding set of principles for moving forward into this new millennium. It is inspired by the Earth Charter, the essential values of which have been culled from the many peoples of the Earth.

Declaration/Pledge

We, the people of planet Earth,
In recognition of the interconnectedness of all life
And the importance of the balance of nature,
Hereby acknowledge our interdependence
And affirm our dedication
To life-serving environmental stewardship,
The fulfillment of universal human needs worldwide,
Economic and social well-being,
And a culture of peace and nonviolence,
To insure a sustainable and harmonious world
For present and future generations.
